Quarter 2 – Module 6:
Vocal Music of Palawan
Introductory Message

This Self-Learning Module (SLM) is prepared so that you, our dear learners, can continue your studies and learn while at home. Activities, questions, directions, exercises, and discussions are carefully stated for you to understand each lesson.

Each SLM is composed of different parts. Each part shall guide you step-by-step as you discover and understand the lesson prepared for you.

Pre-tests are provided to measure your prior knowledge on lessons in each SLM. This will tell you if you need to proceed on completing this module or if you need to ask your facilitator or your teacher’s assistance for better understanding of the lesson. At the end of each module, you need to answer the post-test to self-check your learning. Answer keys are provided for each activity and test. We trust that you will be honest in using these.

In addition to the material in the main text, Notes to the Teacher are also provided to our facilitators and parents for strategies and reminders on how they can best help you on your home-based learning.

Please use this module with care. Do not put unnecessary marks on any part of this SLM. Use a separate sheet of paper in answering the exercises and tests. And read the instructions carefully before performing each task.

If you have any questions in using this SLM or any difficulty in answering the tasks in this module, do not hesitate to consult your teacher or facilitator.

Thank you.
Lesson 1
Vocal Music of Palawan

Learning Competencies

The learner:

1. describes the musical characteristics of representative selections of Cordillera, Mindoro, Palawan and of the Visayas after listening; (MU7LV-IIa-f-1)

What’s In

Activity #1: Let’s Arrange It!

Before we explore Palawan’s music, let us first take some time to review the previous module about the MUSIC OF MINDORO through answering the following activity. Your task is to rearrange the jumbled letters to form words that will complete the sentences below.

1. The natives of Mindoro are called _______. N G A M N Y A
2. The Mangyans acquired this instrument through barter from early Chinese traders. N A G O G
3. A pair of equal-sized wood stuck together is called ___. U L A T G K A N
4. A chant with seven - syllable line is _____. M A H A N B A
5. An stringed instrument which uses human hair for the bow is __. I T I G G T

Now that you have just recalled your previous lesson, we will now travel more in the region of MIMAROPA to explore the richness of music of the Philippine’s Last Frontier - Palawan. Will there be any similarity between the music of Mindoro and Palawan? Let us find out!

What’s New

Activity #2: Come and Listen

Listen to the song “Paraisong Tunay”
https://drive.google.com/open?id=1Vdn_cg0jze_XirzoSA3EsHBND6CQOpY4
PARAISONG TUNAY

Ang Palawan ay isang tunay
Likas yaman sa lahat ang alay
Sa dagat, bundok at kalangitan
May natatanging kulay at kagandahan

Ang Palawan ay isang tunay
Dulot niya’y masaganang pamumuhay
Lahat kami sa ‘yo ay nagpupugay
O Palawan, mahal ka naming tunay

La la la ...
Kayganda ng ating lalawigan
La la la...
Paraisong tunay ang Palawan

What a beautiful song, isn’t it? It just made us feel that we are in Palawan. For us to become more familiar with Palawan and its music, try to answer the following questions based on the song that you have just listened to.

1. What is your first impression about the province based on the song you’ve just heard?
2. What is the song all about?
3. What are the different characteristics of the province that were presented in the song?
4. Are there musical elements presented in the song? What are those elements?
Activity #3: Song Analysis

Aside from natural resources, Palawan is also rich in local talents which they surely can be proud of. The following audio samples are songs originally composed and performed by Palaweños. Using the YouTube links provided, listen and compare the two songs.

1. “Banwa Ko”
   https://drive.google.com/open?id=1j0g5UB7sXDMykadxlTxps-JISxzaH5p

2. “Pista Y Ang Kageban”
   https://drive.google.com/open?id=1nHiva8BZSadhkQLajazYpgbLElDAOz-D

Based on what you have heard, accomplish the activity below.
1. Aside from Tagalog, are there any dialect used in the song?
2. Listen and analyze the two songs. Using the customized Venn diagram, write the differences and similarities of the two songs.

[Diagram showing a Venn diagram with differences and similarities between Banwa Ko and Pista Y Ang Kageban]

Good job! Now that you have somewhat pictured in your head what to expect in the music of Palawan, let us now go deeper and explore more about its vocal characteristics.
What is It

The vocal repertoire of Palawan consists of the Ulit, Tultul, and the Batac. Palaweños believe that there is a strong connection between mankind and nature, that is why, this relationship between us and the “unseen” is the main ingredient in the performance of these vocal musics. According to their beliefs, by applying their rhythm, melodies and tonal quality, they experience a musical journey which connects us to the spirits. The Palaweños use this experience to communicate with the spirits, thus, resulting to a balance and harmonious life.

Tultul is an epic chant. But, what is a chant?

Activity #4: Spot the Difference

To give you an idea of what a chant is, try to compare the two audio samples below. Using the YouTube link provided, listen to the two musics and describe the melodic contour, the time signature, and the rhythmic pattern of the two musics.

<table>

The first sample is called a chant. To chant means to sing the text. These are commonly religious prayers which use a small number of musical notes that are continuously repeated in the piece.

Now, let me ask you something. You will need a notebook to answer these questions.

1. Which do you think is easier to sing, a chant or a pop song? Why?
2. Which of the these two is more pleasant to your ear? Explain your answer.
Going back to Tultul, this chant can only be sung by persons possessed by “Epic Heroes” called Taw Tultultulan. The act of chanting becomes a bridge between these “heroes and real people”. This musical experience also serves as a prayer of protection to us people by the spirits. Tultul is always chanted at night until daybreak. It is prohibited to sing this epic chant when the sun shines because they believe in the strong connection between the night and the sacred world.

The ULIT is a “shamanic” chant. Shamanic deals with the act of curing the sick through rituals like chanting. In this form of vocal music, the shaman (priest) sings the “lumbaga”. It is a specific chant about the difficult experience about the voyage of kuruduwa. The Ulit contains texts about the shaman’s discussions and bargaining with the Evil-doer Langgam.

Batac is a chant performed by the Taganua five days after the interment of the deceased. It is a long song about the adventures of a mythical person Dumaracol. This song is performed for three consecutive nights until dawn.

The Cuyunon Folk songs

Cuyunon refers to ethnic group in Cuyo islands and other parts of Palawan. Some of their most familiar and favorite songs are the TARINTING, LAYANG PASYAK, and KINGKING. Tarinting is a white, long-legged bird found in the seashore during low tides. For you to learn more, here is another interesting Cuyunon song. Using the YouTube link below, listen to the song and answer the questions provided in this activity.

Kingking, Tarinting, Layang Pasyak Medley
https://youtu.be/XtyZZdvkR04

Kingking anay wa wa
Sulan takaw langka
Langkang ara unod
Kapayas nga mangod

Tarinting paglayod don
Ay ikaw tataben den
Pagsut sa liyang liyang
Sa batong malinang linang

Tarinting fly away now
For the high tide will soon come
Enter the eaves
Among the smooth stones

Ako milayang pasyak
Panamban tamban ni pamalanak
Porabil ako mapilak
Kung naga urong sulong ang dagat.

I have a fishnet with shells as the weight
I use it for catching lamban and banak
Before I throw the net
I wait for the tide to come in Answer the questions below.

1. What can you say about the melody of the song? Is it easy to learn?
2. What instruments were used to enhance the music?
3. How did the singers perform the song?

What’s More

Now that you have constructed your knowledge of the vocal music of Palawan, let us now see if you can apply this knowledge through answering the next activity.

Activity #5: “CUYO SAILING”

You are a tourist taking a vacation in Palawan, one of your destinations is Cuyo Island but you don’t have any idea how to get there. Upon asking the locals in Palawan, they told you that for you to get there, you need to sing the three cuyunon folk songs (Kingking, Tarinting, and Layang Pasyak) and the melodic lines will guide you in your journey.

Guide the three sailboats by drawing the melodic contours of the three songs. Connect the starting point and the Cuyo Island using your diagram. Write the lyrics below the melodic contour lines and align it based on the highness and lowness of the pitch as reflected in the said lines.
1. What can you say about the shape of the lines? Are there any patterns formed?
2. Which of the songs is the easiest and which is the hardest to learn? Why do say so?
3. Upon arriving in the island, you need to socialize with the locals by singing their folk songs and appreciating their culture. What will you do with the melody to highlight the message of the song? Cite examples.

Activity #6: Folk Song Analysis

Fill out the table by choosing the right tempo, mood and dynamics of the given folk songs. Write your answers on your activity notebook.

Activity #7: How Do They Do It?

Congratulations for making it this far! You have almost done the activities of the module. All you need to do is take the remaining activities. Are you familiar with one of the episodes on Discovery Channel titled “How Do They Do It?”. If so, this activity will make you more engaged to our lesson. Try to answer the questions by accomplishing the chart below.

Here is the question: How will you perform the elements of music according to the given cultural, traditional, and geographical influences from Palawan?
Directions: Using a separate sheet, fill out the Chart B using the choices located in the Chart A.
- Chart A contains some elements of music with corresponding performance practices that you will choose based on the given functions or purposes.
- For Chart B, write your chosen performance practice per element which you think is appropriate to the given functions/purposes.
